John Chapter 4

1. Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John

A. Therefore,

1. This is connected with John's reply to his disciples telling him that Jesus was baptizing more than he was. Word got out even among the religious elite about that fact.

B. when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John

- 1. Lord- Gr. kurios
 - a. This is a title of divinity. The gospel of John portrays Jesus as the divine Son of God.
- 2. knew Gr. ginosko to acquire first-hand knowledge, come to understand
 - a. This shows that Jesus did not operate in His divine attribute of omniscience [knowing all things] during his earthly ministry.
 - b. Jesus emptied Himself of all His divine attributes when He took on full humanity on earth. He was still God but did not operate as God on the earth. He operated as a man anointed by the Holy Spirit.
 - c. Jesus now in heaven operates in all His divine attributes. He is omniscient [knowing all things] and omnipotent [having all power].

3. Pharisees- Gr. pharisaios

a. The Pharisees, here, seem to denote either the members of the Sanhedrin or those who were in authority. They claimed the authority to regulate the rites and ceremonies of religion, and hence they supposed they had a right to inquire into the conduct of both John and our Lord. They had on a former occasion sent to inquire of John to know by what authority he had introduced such a rite into the religion of the Jewish people. As they were displeased with John, so they were with Jesus, who was doing the same thing on a larger scale – not only making disciples, but baptizing also without their authority, and drawing away the people after him.

-Barnes Commentary

4. heard- Gr. akouo

a. Jesus heard this by word of mouth.

5. made- Gr. poieo

a. Disciples are made. We are to make disciples. Converts are born through the new birth, but disciples must be made by teaching them to observe the Word of God. John 8:31

6. baptized- Gr. baptizo- to dip or immerse

a. Baptism is the sign of conversion, but God is not just interested in converts. He wants them to move on and become disciples.

7. disciples- Gr. mathetes

- a. Jesus was not just interested in making converts. He was more interested in making disciples. That is what our great commission is today. It is to go into all the world and make disciples, NOT just converts. Matt. 28:19
- b. Religious people are always into comparisons and numbers. They were interested in the fact that Jesus was baptizing more than John.

2. (though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples),

A. though Jesus Himself did not baptize,

1. baptize- Gr. baptizo

a. Here as an aside, it is said that Jesus did not actually do any of the baptizing. He let his disciples do them.

B. but His disciples

1. disciples- Gr. mathetes

a. Here we learn a major ministry lesson from the Master. Jesus did not do everything Himself. He had a team and utilized them. He released ministry to others. He taught them, released them, and then evaluated what they did. This is seen when Jesus sent His disciples out two by two on a mission trip and then had a debrief with them after they returned. Luke 10:1, 17-20

- b. The average pastor attempts to do everything themselves. Part of the reason is out of pride that no one else could do it as well. Some of it is out of fear that others will make mistakes. Some do it out of ignorance. Our Lord is the greatest example of ministry leadership. If anyone could do everything and do it perfectly, it is the Lord! However, He chooses not to! He loves to release ministry to others, let them use their God-given gifts and develop them.
- c. Much more can be done with a team than doing everything alone. This is one of the reasons why the average church in America has only around 75 people. The pastor does all or most of the ministry and they cannot handle more than about 75-100 people.
- d. Pastor, you must release ministry to others. Train them, then let them do it, and then evaluate afterwards. You will release the gifts and anointings in your people and much more will get done. Some will make mistakes, but so do you! However, the Lord still uses you! If you do this, then the church will grow!

3. He left Judea and departed again to Galilee.

- A. left- Gr. aphiemi- to send away, release, let go
 - 1. This is an interesting Greek word used here. It means to let go or release. It is used for forgiving or letting go of sins. This word means to let go of something that you are attached to but which you need to let go of.
 - 2. Here in this word, we see that Jesus had a strong attachment to Jerusalem and its immediate surroundings, but He had to let it go for the time being due to the persecution of the Pharisees, and the time had not yet come for Him to die. He had divinely directed ministry in Galilee to do.
 - 3. There are times we develop strong attachment to places, things, and people but we must let go of them in order to do the will of God. Sometimes we only need to release them for a time, but sometimes we need to let them go for good. Are you at that place in your life? If so, God has grace for you to let them go. God has better for you!

B. Judea

- 1. This is the area of Jerusalem and its immediate surroundings.
- C. departed- Gr. aperchomai
- D. Galilee- means a circuit or circle
 - 1. The envy and malice of the Pharisees he might have known were growing so rapidly as to endanger his life. As his time to die had not yet come, he retired to Galilee, a country farther from Jerusalem, and much less under their control than Judea. See Mar 2:22;

 Luk 3:1. Though he feared not death and did not shrink from suffering, yet he did not needlessly throw himself into danger or provoke opposition. He could do as much good in Galilee, probably, as in Judea, and he therefore withdrew himself from immediate danger. -Barnes Commentary

4. But He needed to go through Samaria.

A. needed- Gr. dei

1. Most Jews refused to go through Samaria but went around it instead. Why did Jesus need to go through Samaria? It was because a divine appointment from the Lord awaited Him. A thirsty soul that had cried out to God was heard by Him and Jesus was headed there to give her living water!

B. go through- Gr. dierchomai

- C. Samaria- means watch mountain
 - 1. A city, situated near the middle of Palestine, built by Omri, king of Israel, on a mountain or hill of the same name, about B.C. 925. It was the metropolis of the kingdom of Israel, or of the ten tribes. The hill was purchased from the owner, Shemer, from whom the city took its name (1Ki 16:23-24). Samaria continued to be the capital of Israel for two centuries, till the carrying away of the ten tribes by Shalmaneser, about B.C. 720 (2Ki 17:3; 2Ki 17:5). During all this time it was the seat of idolatry, and is often as such denounced by the prophets, sometimes in connection with Jerusalem. It was the seat of a temple of Baal, built by Ahab, and destroyed by Jehu (1Ki 16:32-33; 2Ki 10:18-28). It was the scene of many of the acts of the prophets Elijah and Elisha, connected with the various famines of the land, the unexpected plenty of Samaria, and the several deliverances of the city from the Syrians.

-Popular Cylopedia

- 2. Israel is divided into three regions: Judea in the south, Galilee in the north, and Samaria in the middle. When a Jew wanted to go from Judea to Galilee, the most direct route led through Samaria. But good Jews would never go that way. They would go through Perea on the other side of the Jordan River. Why? Because there was such tension between the Samaritans and the Jews, that Jews uttered the word "Samaritan" only as a curse word. Why were the Samaritans so despised? In the year 722 B.C., the Assyrians invaded Israel from the north and carried the majority of the people from the ten northern tribes into captivity. The Assyrians then sent some of their people to Israel, where they intermarried with the Jews not taken into captivity. The marriages that took place between the Assyrians and the Jews produced the Samaritans—half-breeds in the eyes of the Jews. Barred from the temple, the Samaritans built their own temple on Mount Gerizim. -Courson
- 5. So he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.
 - A. So he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar,
 - 1. came- Gr. erchomai
 - 2. town- Gr. polis- city
 - 3. Samaria- means watch mountain
 - 4. Sychar means drunken
 - a. This city stood about eight miles southeast of the city called Samaria, between Mount Ebal and Mount Gerizim. It was one of the oldest cities of Palestine, and was formerly known by the name of "Shechem," or Sichem, Gen 33:18; Gen 12:6.

 The city was in the tribe of Ephraim, Jos 21:21. It was at this place that Joshua assembled the people before his death, and here they renewed their covenant with the Lord, Josh.24. After the death of Gideon it became a place of idolatrous worship, the people worshipping Baal-berith,

Jdg 9:46. It was destroyed by Abimelech, who beat down the city and sowed it with salt, Jdg 9:45. It was afterward rebuilt, and became the residence of Jeroboam, the King of Israel, 1Ki 12:25. It was called by the Romans "Flavia Neapolis," and this has been corrupted by the Arabs into "Nablus," its present name. It is still a considerable place, and its site is remarkably pleasant and productive. -Barnes Commentary

b. This city means drunken. This was a very religious city. It was drunk on religion!

B. near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph

- 1. field- Gr. chorion- small space, land, field
- 2. Jacob means supplanter
- 3. given- Gr. didomi
- 4. son- Gr. huios- mature or adult son
- 5. Joseph means increase or addition
 - a. Jacob bought one piece of ground near to Shalem, a city of Shechem, of the children of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of silver, Gen 33:19. In this place the bones of Joseph were buried when they were brought up from Egypt, Jos 24:32. He also gave to Joseph an additional piece of ground which he took from the hand of the Amorite by his own valor, "with his sword and his bow," as a portion above that which was given to his brethren, Gen 48:22. Possibly these pieces of ground lay near together and were a part of the homestead of Jacob. The well was near to this.

 -Barnes Commentary
- 6. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus, therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.
 - A. Now Jacob's well was there.
 - 1. well Gr. pege a source, spring, fountain, a well, an issue, flux, flow
 - a. Jacob's well still stands. One hundred fifty feet deep, it's one of few verifiably authentic biblical sites. But if you get the opportunity to visit Jacob's well, take your helmet, as it's located in the war-torn West Bank. -Courson Commentary
 - B. Jesus therefore,
 - C. being wearied from His journey,

1. wearied- Gr. kopiao

- a. This shows the full humanity of Jesus. He got tired like all other men. He needed to sleep like all other men. When the Word became flesh Jesus learned what it meant to become tired for the first time in all of His eternal existence!
- 2. journey Gr. hodoiporia to go on a journey

D. sat thus by the well

- 1. sat- Gr. kathezomai
 - a. How ironic! The source of living water was sitting by a well of water.
 - b. What was Jesus doing sitting there. He was not waiting on a drink of water so much as waiting for His divine appointment that brought him to that place- the Samaritan woman!

E. It was about the sixth hour

- 1. sixth hour- Gr. hektos hora
 - a. This was at noon. The sun was up and probably it was hot.
 - b. The wells were usually curbed around with stone and covered. On this curb the Savior sat sheltered from the sun at noon, the sixth hour being twelve o'clock. -B. W. Johnson
- 7. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink."
 - A. A woman of Samaria came to draw water
 - 1. woman- Gr. gune
 - 2. Samaria
 - 3. came- Gr. erchomai
 - 4. draw- Gr. antleo
 - 5. water- Gr. hudor
 - a. Two facts are unusual about the woman's actions:
 (1) she could have gone to a closer well (scholars have identified wells that were closer to Sychar); (2) women generally drew water later in the day, when the temperature was cooler. This woman, whose reputation seems to have been well known in the small town (Joh 4:18), probably chose the well farther away from home and came to that well at an unusual hour in order to avoid contact with other women.
 - Life Application

B. Jesus said to her,

- 1. said- Gr. lego
 - a. In this passage, we find the master soul winner at work, and we do well to study the methods He used to bring this woman to a sense of her need and to offer her the solution to her problem. Our Lord spoke to the woman seven times.

 -MacDonald Commentary

C. Give me a drink

- 1. give- Gr. didomi
 - a. This showed the humility of Jesus in asking for a drink from a woman of Samaria.
- 2. drink- Gr. pino
- 8. For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.
 - A. disciples- Gr. mathetes
 - 1. By this time Jesus probably has all twelve disciples with Him.
 - B. gone away- Gr. aperchomai
 - 1. I believe it was not just to buy food that Jesus sent his disciples away. He needed them off the scene because He was about to do something taboo in the time. He was going to have a conversation with a woman and that of Samaria! Both were taboo. He did not need or want the distraction from His disciples.
 - C. city- Gr. city
 - 1. The city of Sychar
 - D. buy Gr. agarazo to shop in the town market
 - 1. What did they go into the city to do? Buy food for 13 hungry men to eat! Wait...as many as said, poor Jesus was so poor that he was homeless and had no money. Really? Then how could He and His disciples afford to buy food for 13 and possibly more men?
 - 2. Jesus did not go around begging for food. Ps. 37:25 He had money for His and the disciple's expenses.
 - E. food Gr. trophe nourishment
 - 1. They went into town to get some bags of burgers for lunch.
- 9. Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.

A. Then the woman of Samaria said to Him,

- 1. woman- Gr. gune
 - a. John, the writer of this gospel, protected this woman's identity and only referred to her as the woman of Samaria.
- B. How is it that you,
- C. being a Jew,
 - 1. Jew
 - a. She saw by his dress, appearance, and [maybe even] the direction whence he came that he was of the Jewish race.
 - -B. W. Johnson Commentary
- D. ask a drink from me,
 - 1. drink- Gr. pino
 - a. The Jewish ceremonial laws described not only certain people as ceremonially unclean, but also anything they touched. In strict religious terms, many Jews of Jesus' time considered the Samaritans to be permanently unclean.

 -Life Application Bible Commentary

E. a Samaritan woman,

- 1. Samaritan
- 2. woman
 - a. Jesus speaking to a Samaritan [one] woman [two] and drinking from her cup [three] was a triple no-no for a Jew. Jesus trampled on vain religious rules to reach this woman's heart and to bring salvation to her.

F. For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans

- 1. dealings Gr. sugchraomai use in common; associate with, have dealings with
 - a. Or, have no friendly intercourse with. Note.—The causes of this enmity on the part of the Jews were, First, the mixed character of the Samaritan race, descended partly from the Israelites and partly from the Cuthi, etc. sent to colonize Samaria by the king of Assyria as related in 2Ki 17:24-34, whence by the Jews called Cuthites. Second, the opposition they offered to the Jews' building their temple on their return from captivity (Ezr 4:1-6, with Neh 6:1-14); But chiefly their building a temple in opposition to that at Jerusalem on Mount Gerizim, which originated from Manasseh, son of Joiada and grandson to Eliashib the High Priest, marrying a daughter of Sanballat the governor of the Samaritans; on which account being expelled by Nehemiah (Neh 13:28), he retired to his father-in-law Sanballat who erected a Temple on Mount Gerizim and appointed him Priest: for which Temple the Samaritans claimed the preference, referring to Deu 11:29, They differed also from the Jews in rejecting all the canonical books of Scripture except the Pentateuch; but after the erection of their temple were scrupulously observant of the Law (De Burgh, pp. 236, 237). Joh 4:27, Joh 8:48, Ezr 4:3; Ezr 4:10, Mat 10:5, Luk 9:53.

- 10. Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."
 - A. Jesus answered and said to her,
 - 1. answered- Gr. apokrinomai
 - 2. said- Gr. epo
 - B. If you knew the gift of God,
 - 1. knew- Gr. eido
 - a. Many do not know the gift of God. That is why we have been given the Great Commission, to tell all about this gift. It is the Great Commission not the Great Suggestion!
 - 2. gift- Gr. dorea
 - a. Jesus was the gift giver by which the gift came and was made possible. The gift of God was living water. This living water was the Holy Spirit in His regenerative work in the new birth that imparts eternal life. vs. 14
 - b. A gift is freely offered but must also be freely taken. If you force someone to take a gift it no longer is a gift but something that is issued. Salvation is a gift to be freely received or rejected. Universalists tell us that all are saved whether they want it or not. Then salvation is not a gift, but it is issued to all. This is an extremely grievous error and damnable heresy today in the grace movement.
 - C. and who it is who says to you,

- 1. says- Gr. lego
 - a. The Messiah
- D. Give me a drink,
 - 1. give- Gr. didomi
 - 2. drink- Gr. pino
- E. you would have asked Him,
 - 1. asked- Gr. aiteo
 - a. Understanding who God is and His heart towards us always impacts our asking. Many are not asking God for much because they have a small view of God or thinks He has a dim view of us. We need to enlarge our knowledge of the Lord and we will ask bigger and receive bigger!

F. and He would have given you living water

- 1. given- Gr. didomi
 - a. Notice that what Jesus had to give back to this woman was much greater than what she gave Him. This brings out the truth that you can never out give God! He always has a bigger shovel!
 - b. There are eight gifts given in the book of John- Joh 4:10; Joh 10:11; Joh 13:15; Joh 14:16; Joh 14:27; Joh 17:8; Joh 17:14; Joh 17:22
- 2. living- Gr. zao
- 3. water- Gr. hudor
 - a. This is the Spirit of God that brings regeneration and eternal life. This is the well of living water within which springs up to everlasting life.

 - 1. woman- Gr. gune
 - 2. said- Gr. epo

 - A. Are you greater than our father Jacob,
 - 1. greater- Gr. meizon
 - a. She began to wonder if Jesus had access to some source of water other than Jacob's well. She asked if he thought he was greater than their ancestor Jacob and could somehow offer better water. Perhaps the woman sensed in Jesus' words a possible dishonoring of the well provided by their great ancestor. -Life Application Bible Commentary
 - b. She did not realize that Jesus was much greater than Jacob.
 - 2. father- Gr. pater
 - 3. Jacob means supplanter
 - a. When it went well with the Jews, they claimed kindred with them, as being descended from Joseph; but when misfortunes befell the Jews, they disowned all connection with them [Josephus, Antiquities, 9.14, 3]. -JFB Commentary
 - b. The Samaritans then were aliens (for they were colonists of the Babylonians), but they call Jacob their father for two reasons. They inhabited a country bordering on Jewish land and so, as neighbors, they were influenced by their worship and were accustomed to boast of the Jews' ancestors. Besides, it was really true that the greater number of the inhabitants of Samaria were sprung from the root of Jacob. For Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, having gathered together ten tribes of Israel and the half-tribe of Ephraim, departed from Jerusalem in the time of the kingdom of the son of Solomon, and took Samaria and built houses and cities there. -Cyril of Alexandria Commentary

 - 2. livestock- Gr. thremma
- 13. Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again,

 - 1. drinks- Gr. pino
 - 2. water- Gr. hudor
 - a. Natural water from the well.
 - 3. thirst- Gr. dipsao
 - a. Natural thirst is never fully satisfied. Our spiritual thirst can and will be.

- 14. but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life."
 - A. but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst
 - 1. drinks- Gr. pino
 - 2. water- Gr. hudor

 - 1. water- Gr. hudor
 - 2. give- Gr. didomi
 - 3. fountain Gr. pege a source, spring, fountain, a well, an issue

 - D. that I may not thirst,
 - 1. thirst- Gr. dipsao
 - E. no come here to draw
 - 1. come- Gr. erchomai
 - 2. draw- Gr. antleo
 - a. This shows this woman was super trusting! Most people would have said, "Get out of here! You are pulling my leg!"

Not this woman. She believed Jesus and He had not even given her any special supernatural sign of any kind. He was about to read her mail about her current living condition, but this was before that.

- 16. Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."
 - A. Jesus said to her,
 - 1. said- Gr. lego
 - B. Go- Gr. hupago

- 17. The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband,'
 - A. The woman answered and said,
 - 1. woman- Gr. gune
 - 2. answered- Gr. apokrinomai
 - 3. said- Gr. epo
 - B. I have no husband
 - 1. husband- Gr. aner
 - a. We will see in the next verse that she was not married but she was "shacking up" with a guy. This shows that just living together does not constitute marriage in God's eyes. The government allows for common law marriages, but God does not acknowledge common law marriages or what we call "shacking up" with someone.
 - b. This woman told the truth that she had no husband but did not reveal all the truth! She did not reveal that she was living with a guy who was not her husband. Often, we only tell half the truth. We need to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth. The truth she conveniently left out, Jesus would supply for her.

- c. The Lord knows all of the truth about us.
- C. Jesus said to her,
 - 1. said- Gr. lego
- D. You have well said,
 - 1. well- Gr. alethes- truthfully
 - a. It was good that she was truthful, but she was not completely truthful. A half-truth that purposely leaves someone with a wrong perception is a whole lie! Half-truths are actually deceptive.
 - b. It is always good to be completely truthful with the Lord because He always knows if you are not!
 - 2. said- Gr. epo
- E. I have no husband
 - 1. husband- Gr. aner
- 18. for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband: in that you spoke truly."
 - A. for you have had five husbands,
 - 1. five- Gr. pente
 - a. Five stands for grace in the Bible. The failures of our past are to lead us to receive the grace of God and amazing restoration in the Lord!
 - b. Those who do not see their failures clearly will not reach out to receive God's grace and salvation.
 - 2. husbands- Gr. aner
 - a. Who have either died; or who, on account of your improper conduct, have divorced you; or whom you have left improperly, without legal divorce. Either of these might have been the case. -Barnes Commentary
 - b. The past five husbands was not proof of her sinful life in itself, but shacking up with a guy to whom she was not married was. Seeing she was in this state would point to the fact that the other five relationships were wrought with difficulty and probable sin.
 - B. and the one whom you now have is not your husband,
 - 1. husband- Gr. aner
 - a. She was living conjugally with a man who Jesus said was not her husband. By such an explicit statement, our Lord rejected the notion that when two people live together it constitutes marriage. Biblically, marriage is always restricted to a public, formal, official, and recognized covenant.

- -MacArthur Bible Commentary
- b. A marriage is a recognized and witnessed covenant before God and before man.

C. in that you spoke truly

- 1. spoke- Gr. epo
- 2. truly- Gr. alethes
 - a. Jesus was gently pointing out her half-truth but also her whole lie!

19. The woman said to Him, "Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet.

- A. The woman said to Him,
 - 1. woman- Gr. gune
 - 2. said- Gr. lego
- B. Sir- Gr. kurios
 - 1. Again this was a term of respect, not a recognition of Him being the Son of God.

C. I perceive that you are a prophet

- 1. percieve Gr. theoreo to see or carefully observe
 - a. It did not take a prophet to perceive that Jesus was a prophet in this instance!
 - b. Notice, she did not say, "I perceive myself to be a sinner". She deflected attention off of herself.
 - c. Seeing herself all revealed, does she now break down and ask what hopes there might be for one so guilty? Nay, her convictions have not reached that point yet. She ingeniously shifts the subject from a personal to a public question. It is not, "Alas, what a wicked life am I leading!" but "Lo, what a wonderful prophet I got into conversation with!

 -JFB Commentary

2. prophet- Gr. prophetes

a. Jesus was not a merely a prophet, but THE prophet Moses prophesied about Him who would come after him. Deut. 18:15, John 6:14

 - D. Galilee means a circuit, circle
 - 1. It must have been hard for Jesus to leave the revival in Samaria where people were responding and folks were getting saved. Why, then, did He go to Galilee? Mat 4:12-16 gives us a clue. You see, the prophet Isaiah predicted Messiah would go into the dark region called "Galilee of the nations." Truly, it was an area of darkness and death, for not only was Galilee far removed from Jerusalem, the center of worship, it was also constantly attacked and overrun by Gentiles. Yet Isaiah prophesied that when Messiah came, He would go to this very place and shine brightly (Isa 9:1-2). Therefore, I believe Jesus returned to Galilee because He understood what the Word said about His ministry. Think through this with me. The Scriptures to Jesus were not only predictive, but directive. That is, when Jesus read the Scriptures, He found not only predictions about His ministry, but direction for His ministry. As He matured in His understanding, He realized increasingly that the prophecies written about Him must be fulfilled by Him. -Courson Commentary
